

HISTORY OF SOUTHERN SUCCULENT PLANT CONFERENCE

5 December 2017

1990 2nd SOUTHERN SUCCULENT PLANT CONFERENCE: March 2,3&4 1990 (weekend after Mardi Gras). Hosted by The Louisiana Cactus and Succulent Society (LCSS) and The Texas Association of Cactus and Succulent Societies (TACSS)—held at Holiday Inn "Holidome", New Orleans, Louisiana, $45/night single, $55/night double, rates good from last day of Mardi Gras to 5 days after the conference.

REGISTRATION FEES

Registration fee: $___/person—will include Friday night buffet, speakers and Saturday night banquet.

SPEAKERS

Dr Gearld Barad, USA from New Jersey—Stapeliads.

Edwin (Ed) Durabb, USA LCSS member—Chihuahuan Desert.

Chuck Hanson, USA from Arizona—Sex in the Greenhouse.

Rev HA (Pete) Harrington, USA from Baton Rouge—The Flora and Fauna of the Galapagos Islands (trip he made with the late Ed Storms).

Norwood Meiners, USA from Louisiana—Epiphyllums.

VENDORS

Ron Studier from Houston, ?.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. Friday, March 2 at 6pm: "Ice Breaker" buffet with cash bar and later a program.
2. Saturday, March 3: Programs with 5 speakers during the day, closing in the evening with a "Mardi Gras" Banquet.
3. Sunday morning, March 4: Conference will end after a visit to the beautiful garden of LCSS member Dottie Watson.
4. There will be time to visit historic New Orleans and the French Quarter on Saturday night or Sunday afternoon.
5. Plant Sales will be held from Friday evening through Saturday.
6. Delta Air Lines is the official carrier for the Southern Succulent Conference with special airfares of a 40% discount on roundtrip coach fares within the United States to New Orleans. Canadian residents will receive a 35% discount. Valid travel dates: February 27 - March 06, 1990 by purchasing tickets 7 days in advance.